

A new season, a new look!

Quantess has many updates to share with you, including a save-the-date for our next seminar in November!

Editorial

Who doesn't look forward to Autumn? Undoubtedly it's the best season for fashion, allowing us to spurge on (a) new pair(s) of boot(s) and a coat that pulls everything together. You may have noticed the small media upgrades we have installed in the last month, in the time we weren't reading the latest quant theory or researching our next investment in said ankle boots. For one, we have a Facebook page now and a proper Instagram where we frequently share stories interesting articles. Please do follow us!

Other exciting news: we are planning our next seminar in November! Details on speakers and location will be announced soon, but block the evening of Thursday 16 November in your calendar..

If you are keen to present research or know somebody who would be great, please do get in touch!

Enjoy the cozy autumn days, and see you in November!

June seminar recap

We had the pleasure of hosting our event at Schroders with two great speakers -

Jing Ju (Rathbones asset allocation specialist) giving us more insights on how definitions of the business cycle affect factor performance, and Charlotte Grace (Cambridge tripos graduate) enlightening us on educational achievement in women. With close to 40 people attending, it was our best turnout yet!

Speaker opportunities

Interested in giving talks? Let us know! We provide opportunities for speakers to showcase their work, either in our seminars or by linking them to other quant events. We are also always interested in hearing from junior talent!

Upcoming events

Save the date: we are proud to host our next event on Thursday the 16th of November! Location and speakers are yet to be confirmed, but we will be based in the City as usual.

Watch this space and our media profiles (Facebook and Instagram)!
